4. RELIGION AND LITERATURE SEMINAR

(see overleaf)

RELIGION AND
LITERATURE SEMINAR

The "kick-off" event of the Religion and Literature Seminar, to be held February 13 and 14, will be a one-man show entitled "The Devil, You Say . . .?" The play incorporates selections from such literary greats as Milton, Dante, Twain, Dostoyevsky, Melville, and the Bible as "the Devil himself" reluctantly comes forth to reveal his nature, to "present his side of the story", as he puts it. The show is an attempt to explore the question of evil, to seek its origin. Performed by professional actor Scott Keely, it is both entertaining and challenging, and would make an excellent activity for youth groups, adult fellowships, or general church audiences. So spread the word in your local congregation or field education church, and make plans now to obtain tickets for your group. Adult tickets are available for $4.00, a special rate of $2.00 is offered to youth, and best of all, seminarians may see the show for free!

Be there Friday the 13th of February, from 7.30 to 9.30 p.m. in Miller Chapel, and bring a group with you. For further information or to reserve tickets call Mark or Lydia Keely, 924-3218. L.Keely

But the January issue also includes a variety of their authors and issues: Robert Kinast on pastoral theology, Carnegie Samuel Calian on forgiveness, John Deedy on the Moonies, Kent Gramm on novelist Walker Percy, Howard Hageman on preaching, Robert Gillogly on spanking, and David Steele with a poem on the life of Jacob. Single issues are available for $1.25 from Rose Rickert in the THEOLOGY TODAY office, 129 Hodge Hall. Or, subscribe at

NOTES

1. Come and learn about missions in Guatemala with the cross-cultural missions group. Mark "Gala" Atkinson will be sharing his experiences as a short-term missionary, and will discuss possibilities for students to participate in a similar summer program in Honduras. Faculty and students invited. Bring your lunch. Betty Glynn (921-9851)
2. Bring your tray and join in dinnertime discussion with women from Fort Monmouth Army Base on the issue of authority in traditionally male professions. All women welcome and encouraged to join us. Sponsored by the Women's Center. Sarah Henseler
3. The Reverend Matthew Welde (Executive Director, Presbyterians United for Biblical Concern) will discuss "Evangelicals in a Pluralistic Church." The Theological Forum invites you to come at noon with your lunch and talk with Mr. Welde.
4. In the course of a seminary education, we find ourselves immersed in theological discussion but have we forgotten how to listen? We assume many things about the spiritual life, but do we risk probing its depths ourselves? These weekly lunch meetings will provide an opportunity to explore the neglected dimensions of meditation, prayer, and spiritual edification - not by talking, but by listening. Join us every Wednesday as we discover together! Mark Burrows
5. The Volunteer-in-Mission program (UPCUSA) offers summer opportunities all across the country in positions of varying responsibilities, from interim pastor to urban work. Don't be scared off by the term volunteer; room and board, travel scholarships, and additional stipends up to $1000 are available to seminary students. At Thursday's meeting, two of last summer's volunteers will briefly share their experiences from Alaska and NYC and discuss options for this summer. Open to students of any denomination. Greg Bostrom

1. Dr. Thomas F. Torrance, the 1980-81 Warfield Lecturer, will be speaking with the Missions Group. Students and faculty are invited to bring their lunch and participate in an informal discussion with Dr. Torrance.
Betty Glynn

2. Dr. Thomas F. Torrance (Emeritus Professor of Christian Dogmatics at the University of Edinburgh and New College) will conclude the last week of the 1980-81 Annie Kinkead Warfield Lecture series in Miller Chapel.

3. Bishop Ananda Rao Samuel (Moderator of the Church of South India) will give an informal discussion sponsored by the International Students' Association. On Wednesday, Bishop Samuel will speak on the "Interfaith Dialogue in the Context of the Mission of the Church," which is sponsored by The Theological Forum.

4. The Reverend Kadi Billman (pastor of the Greenwood Avenue United Methodist Church in Trenton) will first conduct a worship service and then will be available to answer questions about her ministry and her position as a women in the pastorate. Sponsored by the PTS Women's Center. The public is invited to attend.

5. Alright all of you "closet curators"--now is your chance to add that meaningful volume to your library; to procure that tidy tidbit of vellum; find that out-of-print copy of theological trivia . . . ANNOUNCING THE FIFTH ANNUAL STEWARDSHIP BOOK SALE! That's right, your Stewardship Committee is once again bringing you the wonderful opportunity to "stack your shelves" and help others at the same time. How? By coming to see what we have to offer. Plus, when you buy those treasured tracts you've been looking for, you benefit two seminaries overseas in the procurement of books for their libraries. The proceeds from the sale will be sent to Nanking Theological Seminary, in the Republic of China, and Tainan Theological College in Tainan, Taiwan, so they, too, can "stack their shelves."

An added feature this year is a display of beautiful handmaid vestments and albs made by local Vietnamese women. The proceeds from the sale of these garments will be sent to benefit the refugees from Vietnam and other parts of South East Asia.

So take a stroll among "our stacks"--unlike Speer Library, we'll let you keep what you check out--permanently!

John C. R. Silbert

6. J.T. Cuthbertson will be displaying a large selection of robes, stoles, albs, shirts, and jewelery. SENIORS: This will be our last showing of the year, so act now to order your pulpit robe to ensure six to eight weeks delivery time for graduation and come see about our special delayed payment plans, too. Remember to check with your family and home church if they are planning to purchase your robe. See a sample robe at 217 Brown Hall - Michael Roys - 683-0331.

7. Ebb Tide/Flood Tide Planning Committee will meet every Tuesday and is open to all those interested in the planning of this special retreat of prayer, praise and worship. The third annual Spring Break Spiritual Retreat will take place on March 23-25, 1981. For further information contact Ruth Kuyper - 683-0452. Sponsored by the PTS Chapel Group.

8. "The study of theology is a necessary accompaniment to a life of meditation and prayer," as Thomas Merton once wrote. How often we reverse that order, presuming that theological studies are the very basis of our life of faith! Please join with us as we explore the dimension of contemplation, in order that we, too, might "have all the riches of assured understanding and the knowledge of God's mystery, of Christ, in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." (Col. 2:2-3). Blake Heffner - Mark Burrows

9. ATTENTION COMMUTERS - Dr. Loder will be our guest and he will share some insights about sharing faith as spouses. He will suggest ideas from his experiences to help us learn how to deal with our many roles and stresses. Come and join us. Dottie & Joyce

10. Well worth your time! "Guess Who's Coming to Breakfast!" is an ominous introduction to the role of multinational corporations in world affairs. It is the second of a series of films sponsored by the Hunger Task Force which deal with problems of global injustice. Come to learn more about global issues and to preview films available for use in your own churches.

11. All of the Seminary Community is invited to a Special International Dinner. The buffet-style menu will include: Soul food, fried chicken; Italian meatballs in natural sauce; Mexican, make your own tacos; German sauerbraten with its own gravy; Spanish, rice with shrimp; French cut beans; a Greek salad with feta cheese and olives; French eclairs and American bread and butter, coffee and tea. speaker at a Seminar entitled "The Function of the Canon in Biblical Theology" RESTRICTED

3. The Curriculum Workshop is designed to introduce you to the CE:SA materials. An excellent opportunity for those of you planning to work as ministers of Christian Education.

with you the four approaches: Knowing the Word, Interpreting the Word, Living the Word, and Doing the Word.

4. The Trenton State Prison Student Chaplain will reflect on aspects of the prison, ministry and connections to the parish. The entire community is invited. This is also an opportunity for students to visit the prison and talk with the inmates beginning Wednesday,
April 15. If you want to visit, please contact Marnie Nimick (683-0453) immediately and it is mandatory that you attend the seminar.

and involving your congregation. The seminar will address four major topics: education, political action, stewardship, and worship.
Please sign up and plan to attend. T. Maxa

7. Tenebrae is a service which is conducted in semi-darkness and which follows the events which took place during the final hours of Jesus' life through the reading of Scripture. After each Scripture reading, a candle is extinguished and the congregation is finally dismissed in darkness and in silence. Come and join us for a time of worship and meditation as we look back to the Last Supper and the events which led up to the crucifixion of our Lord.

8. Foot-washing is an ordinance which is practiced frequently in many traditions and, to our impoverishment, neglected in others. It is established in John's account of the Last Supper, and is symbolic of our mutual submission to one another. The preacher, Dr. Myron Augsburg, is former President of Eastern Mennonite College.

9. "The Crown of Life" is a Liturgical Drama which expresses the theme of reconciliation to God in the Cross, in the setting of the Garden of Eden. Liturgical Drama, a genre born this century in Sweden, uses drama as liturgy in the context of Christian worship to proclaim the Word of God through Scripture, symbol and characterization. This will be a full service of worship, including prayers and hymns. Participants: Robert Keefer, Jean Shaw, Burt Walsh, Daniel Erdman, John Klein, Dick Donovan, R.C. Smith, Marvin Vickers, and Princia Wu.

PASCHAL VIGIL BREAKFAST:

Following the recital of our faith-story in the events of the Paschal Vigil, a breakfast (break-fast of Lent) will be held in the Campus Center dining hall. We hope that many will be able to bring homemade bread to the service. Of the bread and wine you bring to the Chapel before the service a part will be set aside for the Eucharist; the rest will be taken to the Campus Center for the Breakfast.

The breakfast will be pot-luck and is to remind one of our return to the Promised Land. It is a joyous celebration of Christ's death and resurrection. Please bring food of $1.50 to $2.00 in value to the Campus Center before going to the Chapel for the service. There will be people there to receive this food from 6:30 to 7:15.

Our Lenten theme this year is "Take and Drink." We are called to drink not only of the cup of joy, but also the cup of mourning. After re-enacting the event of Christ's lonely death, come join us in joyous celebration of His resurrection!

Keep in mind our menu as you bring your food:

Honey	Potato Salad	Meats:	Cheeses
Bread	Egg Salad	cold cuts	Fruit Breads
Wine	Deviled Eggs	ham	Nut Breads
Yogurt	Colored Eggs	sausage	Cheesecakes

$1.00 will be collected at the door to cover the cost of beverages and other supplies.

THE PASCHAL VIGIL

The high point of the Christian year is Easter, or the Christian Pascha.

Historically the central celebration of the Church is Pascha, and from a very early time this celebration was focused in the Paschal Vigil. The major themes of Christian biblical theology and worship are included in this service as we journey from darkness to light, from sadness to joy, from fast to feast, from sin to righteousness, from death to life, from this world to the next. In the Vigil there is an attempt to recapitulate the history of salvation, beginning with the six days of creation, the seventh day (of redemption) and going on to the eighth day, the day of the Lord expressed in the Lord's Supper, the Eschatological banquet.

The service of the Vigil is a passage, a procession, and it is our prayer that on our journey to Emmaus the Lord will meet us. The stranger on the road interpreted to them all the scriptures, beginning with the Law and the prophets, and their eyes were opened when he broke bread with them. So in the Paschal Vigil the scripture readings begin with creation, and move through the liberation of the Exodus, the proclamation of the prophets and the victory of Christ over sin and death. The Announcement of the Resurrection, with the reading of the resurrection gospel is the fulcrum of the service. Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us, therefore, let us keep the feast (I Cor 5:7).

In the light of Christ's resurrection and in response to it the Church is born. We then remember and identify with those members of the Body who have gone before, recounting the witness of apostles and martyrs, with emphasis on the present imperatives of the gospel. Remembering and acknowledging who we are as the Church, the people of God, we confess our faith, baptize new members into this Body, and renew our commitment to the Lord, to his Church and to service in the world.

The service comes to its culmination as we come to the Lord's Table, and there receive a foretaste of the banquet of the Kingdom which is in heaven.

In many traditions it is customary to serve a break-fast which historically concludes the fast of Lent.

The Vigil historically seeks to include all aspects of the parish community. For example, the Prologue of John's gospel is read in as many languages as are represented in the congregation. Various groups (choirs, study groups, classes, etc.) participate. This service gives the opportunity for the dedication of all of our abilities and talents to the service of the praise of the risen Christ. Central to the service are preaching, baptism and the Lord's Supper, but we also seek to incorporate music, dance, drama, procession, textile arts, prayer and praise as we seek the inspiration and the direction of the Spirit of God for our lives as a resurrection people.

The service should serve to sweep us into holy history, to challenge us anew by the Word of God and to impel us into service, strengthened with the Bread of Life and the Cup of Salvation.

EASTER VIGIL

There are two traditions for the Vigil that we would like to continue this year. First, all those who join in the celebration are urged to wear white or light-colored clothes. This can be a very personal symbol of the sacred nature of Easter. The second is the tradition of bells. At one point in the Vigil, at the announcement of the resurrection, everyone will be encourage to ring whatever bells they may have. The Seminary bell will also ring. So, come, wearing your festal garments and rejoicing with bells!

NOTICE

The Women's Center invites the members of the campus community to a reception to express appreciation to Mary Potter for her contribution to PTS. The reception will be held in the Alex Oratory from 4:15-5:45 p.m. on Wednesday, May 6. Sarah Henseler

SPECIAL NOTICE

At the April meeting of the Seminary Conference, copies of an anonymous attack upon the author of a recent Viewpoint article, who is an international student, and also examples of defacement by graffiti of posters inviting contribution to an art exhibit were circulated. The Conference affirms the right of individuals to hold and to express diverse views. There are, however, corollary, personal responsibilities to this right. Attacks on persons themselves, in contrast to the positions they hold, are unacceptable. Those, moreover, who choose to express themselves under the cover of darkness, secrecy, or anonymity trade legitimacy for dishonor. Such persons have abdicated their right to a hearing.

The Conference affirms the writer and the artisans who were attacked as properly sharing their concerns and work with the community. And we express our sadness and regret with the visible manifestation that the true application of the Gospel is apparently so little understood and embraced by some among us.

Louis Charles Willard

SUMMER IS FOR READING

Summer is in, with visions of open-ended stretches of time, slowly fading evenings and sultry Saturdays, made for lying in the grass or on the beach, catching up on that evergrowing pile of books known as Summer Reading. Books you've always wanted to read, books you wanted to read this year but never got to -- "I'll read it this summer." The composition of the list may vary from year to year, and the list itself even shrink from time to time, as reality and age set in and you decide perhaps, after all, you can survive without having read "Moby Dick," but every year the list returns, as inevitably as summer mosquitoes.

Perhaps this summer will find you reading "War and Peace" or "Ulysses," or maybe you've been waiting for a chance to curl up with Schillebeeckx's "Christ" or Chris Beker's "The Apostle Paul," or one of Madeleine L'Engle's new books. And did you know Buechner's "Godric" was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize?

We are pleased to offer further recommendations, should you need any.
